

J.P. Morgan Asset Management appoints new Client Advisor on the Global Liquidity EMEA sales team

London, 6 June 2019

J.P. Morgan Asset Management (JPMAM) has appointed Julia Kozłowska as an Executive Director and Client Advisor on the Global Liquidity EMEA sales team, responsible for business development with UK Corporate clients. Julia will represent the Global Liquidity business, working closely with investors who have a need for short-term fixed income investment solutions. She starts with immediate effect. She will be based in London and will report to Jim Fuell, Head of Global Liquidity Sales, International at J.P. Morgan Asset Management.

“We are delighted Julia has joined the team supporting the development of our business with UK corporate clients, local authorities, housing associations and various other client segments. The UK continues to be a significant market for our Global Liquidity business and Julia will be instrumental in continuing to grow our business in the UK across these important client groups” said Fuell.

Julia joined from Refinitiv, a global provider of financial markets data and infrastructure, where she was Head of Market Development for the firm’s strategic accounts. Prior to that Julia worked in Financial Services for 11 years, most recently in Foreign Exchange and Emerging Markets at Morgan Stanley, where she was responsible for the Corporate and Financial Sponsor business in Northern Europe. Julia began her career at Barclays Capital as a graduate, working within the Risk Solutions Group.
