---	--	---------------------

As the name change of the Funds has no substantial adverse impact on the interests of the unitholders, the convening of a unitholders' meeting is not required. The change does not affect the validity and performance of all legal documents signed by the above Funds.

Important notes:

In accordance with the above name change, the Company will amend the content of the fund contracts, custody agreements and other documents of its Funds. The corresponding disclosures in the Prospectus, the Hong Kong Covering Documents and the Product Key Facts Statements of the Funds will also be amended accordingly. Please refer to the website at am.jpmorgan.com/cn for the details of the amendments.

Risk disclosure:

The fund manager undertakes to manage and use the Funds' assets according to the principles of honesty, good faith, due diligence and prudence, but does not guarantee any profits or minimum returns of the Funds. The Funds' past performance is not indicative of their future performance, and the performance of other funds managed by the fund manager does not constitute a guarantee as to the performance of the Funds. Investment involves risks. Investors are advised to read through the relevant legal documents of the Funds carefully, and select the types of investment that match their risk tolerance.

Announcement is hereby given.
