Dear Shareholder,

This is to notify you that JPMorgan Funds - Global Emerging Markets Research Enhanced Index Equity Fund, a sub-fund of JPMorgan Funds, a Luxembourg SICAV (the "Merging Sub-Fund") is being merged into JPMorgan ETFs (Ireland) ICAV - Global Emerging Markets Research Enhanced Index Equity (ESG) UCITS ETF (the "Receiving Sub-Fund"), an actively managed ETF in which you hold shares. This merger is not expected to have any negative effect on the value, costs, or performance of your investment.

On the merger date, the assets of the Merging Sub-Fund that will merge into the Receiving Sub-Fund will be transferred partially in-specie and partially in cash. The merger will increase the assets under management of the Receiving Sub-Fund. There will be no rebalancing of the Receiving Sub-Fund and no costs associated with the merger will be borne by the Receiving Sub-Fund. When the merger transaction occurs, all the assets, liabilities and any accrued income in the Merging Sub-Fund will be transferred to the Receiving Sub-Fund, and the Merging Sub-Fund will cease to exist.

You have two options that are explained below. Subscriptions and redemptions in the Receiving Sub-Fund will not be suspended to carry out the merger.

If you have any questions after reading the information below, please contact us at the registered office or your local representative.

Sub-Fund merger – options to take action

Reason for merger The Board of the Merging Sub-Fund believes that the Merging Sub-Fund's strategy has stronger prospects for growth in the Receiving Sub-Fund's Irish ETF structure. The Boards of the Merging Sub-Fund and Receiving Sub-Fund also believe that it would be in the interests of shareholders in both the Receiving Sub-Fund and the Merging Sub-Fund to merge it into a larger ETF, which has lower total expenses.
