A BROAD VIEW OF SUSTAINABILITY

The fund takes a best-in-class approach to sustainable investing, seeking to invest in companies that are sustainable in the broadest sense, with effective governance, superior management of environmental and social issues, and a durable economic model.

ESG ratings from third-party providers remain inconsistent, meaning in-house research is essential. A global perspective is also invaluable given that more than a third of S&P 500 earnings come from overseas. The fund draws on the fundamental insight of over 20 US equity career analysts, supported by the breadth and depth of our global research platform, to seek companies that meet our sustainability criteria and offer attractive expected returns.

BUILDING A SUSTAINABLE PORTFOLIO

The fund seeks to build a best-in-class sustainable portfolio through a four-step process.

1. Exclude unsustainable industries: We exclude industries that are unsustainable based on values that matter to our clients.
2. Exclude unsustainable businesses: We exclude stocks that breach norms or are unsustainable based on our proprietary sustainability analysis.

3. Identify sustainable leaders: We invest in companies identified by our analysts as sustainable leaders within their sectors, or as demonstrating improving sustainability characteristics, based on our near-70 question sustainability survey.
4. Engage with companies: We use active engagement to understand how companies approach ESG issues, to influence behaviour and to encourage best practice.
