JPMorgan Funds – Europe Dynamic Technologies Fund

Update to reflect that the Sub-Fund may invest in smaller companies and to add the corresponding 'liquidity' and "smaller companies" risks to the risk table in the Sub-Fund Description.

The Sub-Fund follows a best ideas approach with minimal constraints. Recently, there has been a preference for smaller capitalization names which the Investment manager expects to continue, longer term.

There is no material increase to the risk profile of the Sub-Fund.

Should you have any questions about this update or any other aspect of JPMorgan Funds, please contact the Registered Office or your usual local representative.
