

A Message from Your Fund's Board

JPMorgan Funds – Global Bond Opportunities Sustainable Fund

Dear Shareholder,

This is to notify you that the JPMorgan Funds – Global Bond Opportunities Sustainable Fund, a sub-fund in which you own shares, is updating its sustainability exclusions framework.

The change will permit additional investment in green bonds from issuers in industries that would otherwise be excluded by the sub-fund's exclusionary screens. These bonds will be required to meet specific sustainability criteria.

More detailed information about the change, including the timing, appears below. Please take a moment to review the important information below. If you still have questions, please contact us at the registered office or your local representative. You have three options that are explained below.

Reason for change

- There has been significant growth in the green bond market and expectations are for this growth to continue. Moreover, both companies and governments are increasingly looking to issue such bonds to finance the energy transition.
- An impactful proportion of such bonds are in sectors which are excluded from the sub-fund's current investment universe, such as utilities. Allowing access to such bonds from otherwise excluded issuers, will allow the sub-fund to increasingly participate in this growing market opportunity and increase portfolio diversification.
- The investment manager believes it is in the best interest of investors to increase the sub-fund's ability to allocate to this market and opportunity set.
- There will be no material increase to the risk profile of the sub-fund.
