Quadrant definitions are not applicable to commingled fund universe. Please see full Commingled Fund disclosure on back page.
The above chart is for illustrative purposes and includes information for mutual funds only. Of the mutual funds identified in Morningstar’s databases as open-end target date funds available for purchase by qualified retirement plans as of September 30, 2023, 48 mutual fund suites are available for selection and comparison in the Target Date Compass tool. Commingled funds are not shown in above chart due to lack of data availability. Commingled funds can be added to report output by name search. Certain strategies may not be displayed due to data or technical difficulties. Percentage of equity exposure at target date: Strategic allocation to non-fixed income asset classes at target date, typically age 65. Asset class diversification: Calculated using the target date funds’ asset allocation breakdown to 12 J.P. Morgan–defined separate asset classes. The 12 asset classes include: U.S. large cap equity, U.S. mid cap equity, U.S. small cap equity, international equity, emerging markets equity, REITs, commodities, U.S. fixed income, high yield, U.S. TIPS, international fixed income and emerging markets debt. If a mutual fund has less than five asset classes, the fund will not be depicted in the above chart, but may be added to report output by name search. Please see Target Date Compass Methodology for additional information.

TARGET DATE FUNDS: Target date funds are funds with the target date being the approximate date when investors plan to retire. Generally, the asset allocation of each fund will change on an annual basis, with the asset allocation becoming more conservative as the fund nears the target retirement date. The principal value of the fund(s) is not guaranteed at any time, including at the target date.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST: Refer to the Conflicts of Interest section of the Fund’s Prospectus.

COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT TRUSTS FUNDS (COMMINGLED FUNDS): Collective Investment Trusts Funds are collective trust funds established and maintained under a declaration of trust. The fund is not required to file a prospectus or registration statement with the SEC, and accordingly, neither is available. The fund is available only to certain qualified retirement plans and governmental plans and is not offered to the general public. Units of the fund are not bank deposits and are not insured or guaranteed by any bank, government entity, the FDIC or any other type of deposit insurance. You should carefully consider the investment objectives, risk, charges and expenses of the fund before investing. Because of lack of prospectus filing or registration statement, the nature of the data provided in Target Date Compass is limited.

Target Date Compass is designed to provide a framework for identifying and evaluating target date funds (TDF) that align most closely with a plan’s overall goals and its participants’ needs. The goal of the tool is to help plan sponsors assess their retirement plans’ desired level of equity exposure at the target date, as well as desired level of asset class diversification—two important characteristics of TDFs. The framework also encourages plan sponsors to understand, and consider, the characteristics and behaviors of their workforce as part of the target date selection process—factors that the Department of Labor (DOL) has also stated fiduciaries should take into account when designing the investment menu for a defined contribution (DC) plan. The Target Date Compass is meant to help in the due diligence process when evaluating TDFs for a plan. The Target Date Compass is not meant to replace the fiduciary responsibilities that are inherent with all plan sponsors. If the Target Date Compass is used, it should be used as part of a comprehensive due diligence process.
